The British at Last Reach the Besieged City of Ladysmith.

The British Loss So Far Is 12,834, of Which 2,319 Were Added During the Last Fortnight-This Does Not Include Buller's Loss.

London, March 1 .- The war office has received the following dispatch from Gen. Buller:

"Lyttleton's Headquarters, March 1. -9:05 a. m.-Gen Dundonald, with Natal carbineers and composite regiments, entered Ladysmith last night."

"The country between me and Ladysmith is reported clear of the enemy. I am now moving on Nelthorpe."

London, March 1.-The news of the relief of Ladysmith was received with much more enthusiasm than any previous event of the war. Flags were immediately hoisted on a number of hotels and other buildings and Gen. Buller's success was everywhere received with the heartiest satisfaction. The news has not yet affected the stock exchange. The lord mayor of London immediately telegraphed his congratulations to Gens. White and Buller. When the queen received the news at Windsor castle the bells on the Curfew tower of the castle were rung in honor of the event.

London, Feb. 27.-The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts:

"Paardeberg, Feb. 27.—7:45 a. m.— Gen. Cronje and all of his force capitulated unconditionally at daylight and is now a prisoner in my camp. The strength of his force will be communicated later. I hope that her majesty's government will consider this event satisfactory, occurring as it does on the anniversary of Majuba."

The prisoners, who number about 3,000, will be formed into commandes under our own officers. They will also leave here Tuesday, reaching the Modder river Wednesday, when they will be railed to Cape Town in detachments.

Twenty-nine Transvaal officers were captured and 18 Free State officers were made prisoners.

The guns captured from the Transvaal forces were three 75-centimeter Krupps, 9 one-pounders, and one Maxim gun. From the Free Staters the British captured one 75-centimeter Krupp and one Maxim gun.

The officers captured by Gen. Roberts, besides Gen. Piet Cronje, include the following well-known commanders: Chief Commandant M. J. Wolverans, a member of the Volksraad; Field Cornet Frus, a Scandinavian; Major Albrecht, the famous German artilleryman; Major Von Dewitz ,the distinguished German officer, responsible for most of the splendid engineering works of the Boers since the commencement of the war.

New York, March 1.-But for the surrender of Gen. Cronje, which over- noted people throughout the country. shadowed the news from Natal, England would be shuddering over the Electropoise, and ask your careful ex-British reverse at Railway Hill, where the Inniskilling Fusiliers were caught in a Boer trap and slaughtered. The London Mail's correspondent, under date of Pieters, February 24, describes the engagement:

"Last night the Irniskilling Fusiliers, mixed with some of the Dublin another." Send address for our book Fusiliers, and the Connaught Rangers, attempted to carry Raitway Hill from Pieters. They were under a continuous fire, through which they passed up the lieavy broken ground to the first Boer trench. Half way up the hill the Boers retreated to the crest, and then came back on either flank of the Irish troops, enfilading the captured trench with a savage cross as well as a direct fire.

"All night and until 9 o'clock in the morning our men held the position under a ceaseless fire and at terrible cost. At roll call only five officers and one hundred men answered to their

"Col. Thackery and Maj. Sanders, of the Inniskillings; Col. Sitwell, of the Dublin Fusiliers; Capt. Maitland, of the 2d Gordon's, and Col. Thorold, of the Welsh Fusiliers, were killed. Two hundred and fifty-two of the rank and file were killed or wounded.

"Gen. Lyttleton's brigade relieved them at 10 o'clock this morning, when the Boer artillery pounded the troops holding the center kopjes without pause, but with little effect." Rensburg, Feb. 28.-Gen. Clements, escorted by a squadron of Inniskillings, entered Colesberg this morning and received an enthusiastic reception. A number of the leading men have been arrested. The inhabitants are well and not starving. They have suffered many indignities at the hands of the Boers, but no violence. Arundel, Feb. 27.-Rensburg was oc cupied by Gen. Clements after a slight skirmish and with no serious opposition. Neither the town nor the railway has been been injured. London, March 1 .- According to a special dispatch from Cape Town, dated February 27, Lord Kitchener is at Arundel, the Boers are retiring to Norval's Point, and all is quiet at Stormberg. Overdose of Whisky and Death.

Hinton, W. Va., March 1 .- James Morris, while drinking a wager with Alonzo Nelson in H. G. Tyree's saloon, fell in an unconscious condition just as he swallowed the third beer glass of whisky. He expired before medical aid could be summoned. Nelson, who had taken the same quantity of whisky, is still in a precarious condition.
